

Giles — Chun

12-31-97

Dan and Rosemary Giles are pleased to announce the marriage of their son, William Dan Giles, to Nicol Kehaviani Chun, daughter of Wayne and Linda Chun, of Hawaii.

William is a 1993 graduate of Wasatch High School and LDS Seminary in Heber City. He has served a mission for the LDS Church in the New York-New York South Mission, Spanish-speaking. He is currently attending BYU studying Construction Management.

Kehau is a graduate of Kamehameha, and has attended Washington University, Boston College and received her Associate's Degree at Ricks College. She has also recently graduated from BYU with a Bachelor's Degree in Biology and Secondary Education.

William and Kehau will be married on Saturday, Dec. 27, in the Hawaii LDS Temple. All friends and family are invited to attend a reception held in their honor on Jan. 3, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., at the Heber East Stake Center.
